Login

A diagram of a login form within a window. The window has a title bar with three colored buttons (red, yellow, green) on the left. The form consists of a rounded rectangular input field labeled "USERNAME", a dark rectangular button labeled "LOGIN" centered below it, and two square boxes containing the numbers "2" and "3" at the bottom, separated by the word "OR". Lines connect the "LOGIN" button to the "2" and "3" boxes.
